FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Denver International Airport Shops and Restaurants to Host Job Fair for More than 400 Positions

DENVER – May 31, 2016 – Denver International Airport (DEN) shops and restaurants looking to fill more than 400 jobs will host a job fair on Saturday, June 4.

The job fair, which is sponsored by the airport's Concessionaires Association, will take place from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Rachel B. Noel Middle School, located at 5290 Kittredge Street in Denver. Some participating companies will be conducting on-site interviews.

The available jobs include a wide range of restaurant, retail, management and spa service positions, including: general managers, assistant managers and supervisors, sous chefs, kitchen managers, line and prep cooks, dishwashers, food runners, bartenders, servers, hostesses, cashiers, retail clerks, stock clerks, maintenance, storeroom positions, massage therapists, nail technicians, cosmetologists, estheticians and makeup artists.

Job seekers are asked to RSVP online at DIAjobs.eventbrite.com

About DEN's Shopping and Dining Program

DEN's concession program consists of more than 170,000 square feet of retail space inside the airport that includes more than 140 locations offering an exciting culinary, fashion and retail experience. In 2015, the concession program generated a record $335.7 million in annual gross receipts.

Denver International Airport is the 19th-busiest airport in the world and the sixth-busiest airport in the United States. With more than 54 million passengers traveling through the airport each year, DEN is one of the busiest airline hubs in the world's largest aviation market. DEN is the primary economic engine for the state of Colorado, generating more than $26 billion for the region annually.
