FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

‘Dumb Friends League’ Barks, Meows and Neighs at Denver International Airport

DENVER – June 22, 2017 – Denver International Airport (DEN) is partnering with the Dumb Friends League to create a new temporary art exhibit featuring a variety of animal-related services, including pet adoption information, to help educate travelers. The display cases are located at the northeast end of the Jeppesen Terminal on Level 5, through November.

Founded in 1910, the Dumb Friends League is the region’s largest community-based animal welfare organization and has achieved one of the highest placement rates for homeless pets in the country. Exhibit display cases artfully highlight important services the Dumb Friends League offers, such as pet adoption, equine adoption, animal protection and spay/neuter services. The unique and educational exhibit celebrates one of Colorado’s compassionate non-profit organizations.

About DEN’s Art and Culture Program

DEN’s Art and Culture Program administers the City and County of Denver’s “one percent for art” ordinance which enhances public places and features nearly 40 site-specific works including sculptures, murals and other installations. The pieces are displayed in outdoor landscapes, inside Jeppesen Terminal and on airport concourses, as well as in the train tunnels and on the train itself. In addition to its permanent art collection, DEN curates temporary exhibitions, collaborating with museums, cultural institutions and arts organizations to present the highest quality two- and three-dimensional work. About Dumb Friends League

The Dumb Friends League takes in an average of 60 homeless pets every day — more than 22,000 last year. In addition to finding homes for pets and horses, the organization offers many other programs, including veterinary care, foster care, humane education, behavior training, animal welfare investigations, equine services, lost and found, free cat spay and neuter surgeries at Solutions Cat Spay/Neuter Clinic, and income-based, reduced-fee spay and neuter services for cats and dogs through mobile units, subsidized by Dumb Friends League donors. Denver International Airport is the 18th-busiest airport in the world and the sixth-busiest airport in the United States. With 58.3 million passengers traveling through the airport each year, DEN is one of the busiest airline hubs in the world’s largest aviation market. DEN is the primary economic engine for the state of Colorado, generating more than $26 billion for the region annually.
